

Call for agrifood SMEs/Startups interested in receiving small grants to improve their business

2024 | Application deadline: 30 April 2025

EIT Food is looking for agrifood small businesses and starts ups to encourage innovation and create healthy food alternatives. Through our AMPLE programme, we are distributing 30 Boost Vouchers (small grants of €2.300) to help businesses improve their production processes and create healthier and more sustainable products. Application deadline: 30 April 2025 (Conditioned by fund availability).

Further details about EIT Food can be found at: www.eitfood.eu.

EIT Food will not provide new information that has not already been included in this call document, but can assist the potential applicants by explaining the contents of this document (please contact leticia.lopez@eitfood.eu)

This tender (application) should be comprehensive so that EIT Food is able to have a clear understanding about you, your ways of working with clients, your suggested expertise and services, and your capacity to deliver on what you promise so we can make an informed decision.

ABOUT EIT FOOD

EIT Food is Europe's leading food innovation initiative, working to make the food system more sustainable, healthy, and trusted by consumers. Established by the European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT) in 2017, EIT Food is a fast-growing partnership organisation focusing on entrepreneurship and innovation in the food sector.

EIT Food is a member organisation bringing together key industry players, agri-food startups, research centres and universities from across Europe representing the food value chain in Europe. In addition to thematic leadership, EIT Food is also responsible for coordinating a multi-million-euro EU grant allocation from the EIT and distributing it among its partners and stakeholders for the implementation of projects.

EIT Food headquarters (HQ) are based in Leuven (Belgium) and it has 5 regional offices in Europe (based in Poland, Spain, Germany, the UK and Belgium), each working with and for partners in several EIT Food partner countries.

ABOUT CITI FOUNDATION

The Citi Foundation works to promote economic progress and improve the lives of people in low-income communities around the world. We invest in efforts that increase financial inclusion, catalyse job opportunities for youth, and reimagine approaches to building economically vibrant communities. The Citi Foundation's "More than Philanthropy" approach leverages the enormous expertise of Citi and its people to fulfil our mission and drive thought leadership and innovation.

ABOUT AMPLE PROGRAMME

The Citi Foundation launched its first ever Global Innovation Challenge in February 2023 to help scale the impact of nonprofits around the world that are developing innovative solutions to improve food security. EIT Food was one of the 50 organizations worldwide to receive funding from the Citi Foundation to design and pilot the AMPLE Programme to strengthen the physical and financial health of low-income communities. The Programme started in Madrid in October 2023 and runs until 30 September 2025.

AMPLE provides training courses, learning resources and networking opportunities to vulnerable communities to help them enter the agrifood labor market. EIT Food is working with 3 non-profit organizations to run training courses focused on healthy and sustainable cooking, regenerative agriculture, and agrifood entrepreneurship.

Another important goal of AMPLE is to support startups and small businesses (SMEs) in the agrifood sector to improve their production process and create healthier and more sustainable products. AMPLE is distributing 30 'Boost Vouchers' (small grants of Euro 2300) to agrifood startups and small businesses to encourage innovation and create healthy food alternatives.

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

EIT Food is recruiting agrifood SMEs and startups with economic activity in Madrid providing services/products, which can benefit from small grants (€2.300) to become more sustainable while addressing the issue of food insecurity.

Related to EIT Food's mission, Healthier Lives Through Food, AMPLE is giving economic support to agrifood SMEs and startups to find innovative solutions for affordable products. We want to encourage SMEs to improve their production process or innovate the properties of a food product to provide more affordable, accessible, and healthier food in Madrid.

The activity leading to improvement should take place and be reported on 6 months after the activity started. We particularly encourage applications from businesses led by under-represented groups.

Main duties & responsibilities

- Put in place an action plan to improve the business to produce more affordable, accessible, and healthier food.
- Promote the award of the boost voucher mentioning the Ample Programme, EIT Food and Citi through social media and website.
- Actively participate and promote the events related to Ample through social media and website.
- Continuously coordinate with the EIT Food team to effectively implement the action plan and receive feedback.
- Prepare a final report that provides a comprehensive overview of the accomplishments: description of the implementation process, points of sale, number of sales and profits, and job creation after improvements.
- Respect the EIT Food branding guidelines and visuals in any communication material.
